Discussion regarding the Lift Station matter on 9th Avenue Court: Resident Randy Baldrige appeared on behalf of his daughter who owns the home regarding the matter. (The lift station located on 9th Avenue Court services only one home, there has been many clogs from foreign matter, the resident was notified that under normal wear and tear the Village would pay for any maintenance to the pump inside the lift station. On Saturday, July 29, 2017, a call was placed to our Public Works department regarding an issue with the pump. Public works went to the lift station to repair the pump, it was later discovered by MVP Pump as a scented warmer which was the reason for the failure of the pump. The Village notified the home owner that this was beyond the Village's responsibility.) Mr. Baldrige would like the Village to look into a more aggressive pump (grinder pump) to install at the lift station, to eliminate this from happening again. Mr. Baldrige stated he would even be willing to pay for the more aggressive pump. Mr. Baldrige stated they will pay the invoice to MVP Pump for the replacement.
